1st Annual UC Davis
Undergraduate Philosophy Essay Contest

EXHIBIT YOUR ANALYTIC SKILLS! SPEAK TO THE DEEPEST INTELLECTUAL PROBLEMS WE FACE! DEMONSTRATE THE THOUGHT-PROVOKING AND INSIGHTFUL TALENTS THAT ARE THE HALLMARK OF UCD PHILOSOPHY! ENTER THE PHILOSOPHY ESSAY CONTEST! WIN $100!

The winning paper will be presented as part of an undergraduate awards ceremony that will take place at the reception for philosophy students on June 10, 2011. The paper will carry a $100 prize.

Guidelines:
Papers that have been written on any topic by a UC Davis student for any philosophy class at UC Davis in the Spring 2010 through Winter 2011 quarters are eligible. Papers should be approximately 2,100 – 3,000 words (7-10 pages, standard 12 point font), double spaced, and paginated.

Papers will be read by a two or three person panel consisting of faculty from the philosophy department. Papers should be prepared for blind review (the author's name and any other identifying marker should be removed). Electronic submissions only, please. Submit papers in Word or PDF to Professor Marina Oshana, moshana@ucdavis.edu

Submission deadline: April 29, 2011.
