

Philosophy 151
Nineteenth Century European Philosophy
Winter, 2011

Instructor: Dr. G. J. Matthey
Office: 2298 Social Science and Humanities Building
Phone: (530) 554-4950
E-mail: gjmatthey@ucdavis.edu
Office Hours: T 1-3, F 2-3
Lecture: 1 Wellman, MW 10:00-11:50 A.M.

Schedule

JANUARY	3	INTRODUCTION
	5	KANT AND HIS SUCCESSORS	DIVINE GOVERNMENT (FICHTE)
	10	SCHOPENHAUER	WILL SECTIONS
	12	SCHOPENHAUER	CHARACTER, VIRTUE, INCOMM.
	17	NO CLASS
	19	HEGEL	GENERAL CONCEPT OF LOGIC
	24	HEGEL	PHENOMENOLOGY
FEBRUARY	26	HEGEL	PHILOSOPHY OF HISTORY
	31	MARX	CRITIQUE: FEUERBACH, HEGEL
	2	MARX	GERMAN IDEOLOGY
	7	MARX	ALIENATED LABOR, MANIFESTO
	9	KIERKEGAARD	ABSOLUTE PARADOX
	14	KIERKEGAARD	FAITH & THE ABSURD, SYSTEM
	16	KIERKEGAARD	MELANCHOLY, DREAD
MARCH	21	NO CLASS
	23	NIETZSCHE	LIFE, ETC, 'REASON' IN PHIL
	28	NIETZSCHE	GENEALOGY
	2	NIETZSCHE	PREJUDICES OF PHILOSOPHERS
	7	DOSTOEVSKY	PART I
	9	DOSTOEVSKY	PART II
	14	CONCLUSION
	18	FINAL EXAMINATION 1:00-3:00 P.M.

Texts: Nineteenth-Century Philosophy, ed. Gardiner
Notes from Underground, Fyodor Dostoevski

Course Web Page: <http://philosophy.ucdavis.edu/matthey/phi151/index.html>

Course Requirements: There will be a final examination and a paper, each to be weighted 50%. The final will be in-class and will consist of short-answer questions. The paper will be a roughly 1500-word analyses of on an assigned topic. All work must be completed for the course to be passed. Late papers will be docked one level (e.g., A- to B+) per two working days late. If, without prior permission, the final examination is not taken at the scheduled time or the paper is delinquent at the time of the final, a grade of F will be assigned for the course. Permission from the instructor must be obtained to be assigned the grade Incomplete.

CELL PHONE POLICY

During class, cell phones must be turned off and not be used for any communication, including text-messages, checking to see who has called you, etc. If you have special circumstances which require the use of a cell phone during any class or series of classes, you must obtain permission from the instructor.